

took over the public schools, said real property being described as follows:

"A certain parcel of land in Alamance County, North Carolina, adjoining the lands of Samuel Martin, Tempy Durham and others, consisting of approximately three (3) acres, which said property has now for many years been used by the Martin Chapel Baptist Church."

WHEREAS, this property is no longer needed for use as a public school site and has not been used as a public school site or for any school purpose since 1912; and

WHEREAS, it is the judgment of the Alamance County Board of Education that it would be in the public interest to convey all right, title and interest of the Alamance County Board of Education in and to said property to the trustees, or other official body authorized to hold title to real property, of the Martin Chapel Baptist Church: Now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That the Alamance County Board of Education be and it is hereby authorized, empowered, and directed to convey by good and sufficient deed all its right, title and interest in and to the real property described herein to the trustees, or other official body authorized to hold title to real property, of the Martin Chapel Baptist Church.

Sec. 2. All laws and clauses of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 3. This Act shall be in full force and effect from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times and ratified, this the 23rd day of March, 1965.

CHAPTER 104

AN ACT TO AMEND G. S. 1-496 SO AS TO PROVIDE THAT UNDERTAKING OR BOND SHALL NOT BE REQUIRED IN SUITS BETWEEN SPOUSES CONCERNING SUPPORT, ALIMONY, CUSTODY, AND DIVORCE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. G. S. 1-496 is amended by adding a new sentence at the end thereof to read as follows:

"Provided, however, that in suits between spouses, relating to support, alimony, custody of children, separation, divorce from bed and board, and divorce absolute no bond or undertaking shall be required of the plaintiff spouse as a condition precedent to the issuing of a restraining order enjoining the defendant spouse from interfering with, threatening, or in any way molesting the plaintiff spouse during pendency of the suit, until further order of the court."

Sec. 2. All laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 3. This Act shall be in full force and effect from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times and ratified, this the 24th day of March, 1965.
